

IBM i Solution Services

Entrepid is a services solution provider and integrator focused on the enterprise IBM i (AS400) host environment:

- SAN consolidation
- Backup and Recovery
- Migration services
- Disaster Recovery
- High Availability
- VIOS
- PowerHA
- Content Management

Entrepid handles all phases of the sale

- Pre-sales qualification of customer environment including system hardware
- Product selection to meet customer requirements and business objectives
- Host system performance assessment to provide confidence of proposed solution
- Services definitions for project planning and implementation
- Comprehensive scope of implementation services
- End to end implementation, programming services and support
- Knowledge transfer of new solutions to customer operations team
- Support for Open Systems to provide a single vendor solution

As an EMC Preferred Services Partner & IBM Power Systems Partner for i with more than 20 years experience with EMC solutions and the IBM i host environment, Entrepid is uniquely qualified to assist in providing the guidance and knowledge required to allow enterprise customers to take advantage of the many solutions available today to enable their business requirements.

Entrepid can provide complete implementation of proposed solutions specializing in the IBM i host family:

- End to End Solution Implementation and Support for the Power Systems Environment
- IBM i Performance Analysis and Tuning
- Datacenter Migration and Consolidation
- Automation for Backup and Archiving, High Availability or Disaster Recovery
- Content Management Design and Implementation